

Gordon Fee – Chp 14

1. Why would Paul be so baffled by “What is your spiritual gift seminars”?
2. Fee identifies three loose headings under which the gifts could be categorized as service, miracles and inspired utterance. What do these divisions about Spirit’s work in the Church?
3. Why does Fee find the limiting of miracles to the apostolic age troubling?
4. The while the gifts labeled as Inspired Utterance are very diverse according to Fee what does Paul believe about all of them?
5. According to Fee how does our understanding of the manifestations and gifts of the Spirit inform our understanding of the Already-Not-Yet reality of the Church?

Gordon Fee – Chp 14

1. Why would Paul be so baffled by “What is your spiritual gift seminars”?
2. Fee identifies three loose headings under which the gifts could be categorized as service, miracles and inspired utterance. What do these divisions about Spirit’s work in the Church?
3. Why does Fee find the limiting of miracles to the apostolic age troubling?
4. The while the gifts labeled as Inspired Utterance are very diverse according to Fee what does Paul believe about all of them?
5. According to Fee how does our understanding of the manifestations and gifts of the Spirit inform our understanding of the Already-Not-Yet reality of the Church?

Gordon Fee – Chp 14

1. Why would Paul be so baffled by “What is your spiritual gift seminars”?
2. Fee identifies three loose headings under which the gifts could be categorized as service, miracles and inspired utterance. What do these divisions about Spirit’s work in the Church?
3. Why does Fee find the limiting of miracles to the apostolic age troubling?
4. The while the gifts labeled as Inspired Utterance are very diverse according to Fee what does Paul believe about all of them?
5. According to Fee how does our understanding of the manifestations and gifts of the Spirit inform our understanding of the Already-Not-Yet reality of the Church?

