

Writing assignment 2 ... essay:

One can argue that art, science and religion are all paths that humans take to better understand our universe and our place in it. Ponder these three human enterprises and write a short essay on the things that differentiate the methodologies of art, science and religion. Why is it that science and religion often seem to be in conflict? Is conflict between science and religion avoidable?